BOARD OF VISITORS
GEORGE MASON UNIVERSITY

Meeting of the Executive Committee
May 3, 2018
MINUTES

PRESENT: Rector Davis, Vice Rector Peterson and Secretary Purvis; Visitors Hazel and Petersen; President Cabrera; and Secretary pro tem Cagle.

ALSO ATTENDING: Visitors Blackman and Witeck; and Student Representatives Kanos and Quillen.

I. Rector Davis called the meeting to order at 8:05 a.m.

II. President’s Comments
President Cabrera provided a preview of the full Board meeting noting there would be a decision on the proposed $1.06 billion budget, including a decision on tuition. He noted these items would be presented in the Finance and Land Use Committee and encouraged all Visitors to attend that meeting. President Cabrera reported he would be sharing some very positive news about the University, but there would also be a discussion about the recent criticism regarding prior gifts accepted by the University.

Rector Davis reported he had met with the Faculty Senate prior to the recent release of the gift documents. He noted that, to his knowledge, none of the current Visitors were on the Board at the time the agreements occurred. Rector Davis shared his thoughts that the policy be put in writing moving forward, have a discussion about a review process and have an outside person steer the review process to provide credibility. He commented it was important to have this discussion in Open Session and noted the Faculty Senate Chair would be addressing the full Board with the concerns from the faculty.

III. Closed Session
Rector Davis recognized Vice Rector Peterson for a motion to go into Closed Session. It was MOVED by Vice Rector Peterson and SECONDED by Visitor Hazel that the Executive Committee go into a Closed Session under the provisions of Section 2.2-3711.A.2 to discuss a Student Matter, Section 2.2-3711.A.4 for the Protection of Privacy of a Personal Matter pertaining to a student, Section 2.2-3711.A.29 to discuss a Public Contract, Section 2.2-3711.A.9 to discuss Gifts, Bequests and Fundraising Activities, Section 2.2-3711.A.7 for consultation with Legal Counsel pertaining to actual or probable litigation, Section 2.2-3711.A.8 for consultation with Legal Counsel regarding specific legal matters requiring the provision of legal advice, and Section 2.2-3711.A.1 to discuss a Personnel Matter.
Rector Davis opened the floor to discussion. There was none.

MOTION CARRIED UNANIMOUSLY BY VOICE VOTE

Roll call was taken with all present members responding in the affirmative.

IV. Adjournment
With no other business matters to come before the Executive Committee, Rector Davis adjourned the meeting at 8:45 a.m.

Ms. Kendall provided background information on the awards, noting it is a university and community-wide annual award program to recognize both Mason and community individuals, groups, government, businesses, and not-for-profits who demonstrate leadership in fostering mutually beneficial relationships between the University and the community. She noted it was the fifth anniversary of the Jack Wood Award program. Ms. Kendall explained the award is named for John C. “Jack” Wood, Mayor of the Town of Fairfax from 1953-1964, who was the driving force for arranging a campus to be located on land adjacent to the town and deeding it to the Commonwealth of Virginia for the University, beginning the “Town-Gown” relationship. IV. Rector’s Report
Rector Davis commented that the clocks in Innovation Hall, where he teaches, had not been re-set for daylight savings time and did not know how prevalent that might be on campus.

He noted he had a good meeting with the Faculty Senate the previous week and brought up the topic of copies of past exams being kept by a fraternity. He reported the question was whether or not these exams were available to all students or just members of the fraternity and he asked the faculty for their feedback on this issue.

Rector Davis noted the proposed Board of Visitors meeting schedule for 2018-2019, presented in the Board materials, would be approved at the Annual Meeting in July. He asked the Visitors to review the dates and refer any questions to Secretary pro tem Cagle.

V. President’s Report
President Cabrera referred to the President’s Report (Attachment 3). He highlighted the following: The School of Dance was invited by Lar Lubovitch to close the 50th Anniversary season with a performance of his “Brahms Symphony” at the Joyce Theater in New York City; under the leadership of Dr. Bill Hazel, Senior Advisor for Strategic Initiatives, Mason hosted a conference on the opioid crisis that was attended by Governor Northam and Congressional leaders; former Virginia Governor Terry McAuliffe joined the faculty of the Schar School of Policy and Government; General Michael Hayden, distinguished visiting professor at the Schar School of Government and Policy, hosted an event at the National Press Club in D.C., with more than 600 people in attendance, to discuss espionage in popular culture; Professor Thomas Lovejoy wrote an op-ed piece for the New York Times about “intact forests”, a quarter of the planet’s total forest area, and their 7 percent decline since 2000, noting how preserving what is left is critical for human survival. President Cabrera noted there were many additional achievements of the faculty and research centers included in the report. In the area of transformative partnerships, he provided an update on ADVANCE, the partnership with Northern Virginia Community College (NOVA) and Mason, noting there are more than 20 curricular pathways for NOVA students to transition to Mason. President Cabrera reported that agreements with Wiley had been signed to launch two new master’s programs in 2019; this was in addition to the programs launched earlier this year. He reported work was continuing on the Mason Impact and the Student Experience Redesign, noting the study abroad program participation showed an increase of 19% year over year this Spring. President Cabrera highlighted research news that included a steady growth in research activity, noting research expenditures were up more than 12% over last year, facilities and administrative costs recovered were up by almost 7%, the number of new awards was up by 8%, while the value of the new awards was up by 30%. In the area of fundraising, President Cabrera reported the campaign, scheduled to end December 2018, has met its annual goal of $60 million and is on pace to exceed the $500 million campaign goal. He noted the number of alumni donors has increased over last year, a strong indicator of alumni engagement, and the second annual “Giving Day” was a success. He referred to the President’s Report for a complete list of highlights and his activities.

(Attachment 3: President’s Report)

President Cabrera briefed the Board on the recent news about gift agreements. He reported that on Friday, April 20, he was made aware of gift agreements that had been signed by the University between 2003 and 2011 and were in support of faculty positions in the Department of Economics. He explained the agreements included some language that allowed donors to have some role in the selection and evaluation of the professors. President Cabrera referred to a statement he had issued saying that he thought that language fell short of the standards of academic independence that the University expects in any gift. He reported that on Thursday, April 26 he was advised by University Counsel that those documents were responsive to an ongoing FOIA request and were subsequently released on Friday, April 27. President Cabrera noted his memo to the faculty expressed his concerns with the gifts and he reaffirmed his commitment to maintaining and upholding the principle of academic independence at the University. He reported that on Tuesday, May 1, he had a meeting and productive conversation with Faculty Senators where faculty members expressed their concerns about the gifts. President Cabrera reported they also discussed how to move forward, ensuring donor agreements do not have those provisions.

President Cabrera recognized Dr. Keith Renshaw, Faculty Senate Chair, for a statement from the Faculty Senate. Dr. Renshaw read the following statement:

Thank you for the time and opportunity to convey the faculty reactions to the recently released gift agreements.

As you likely know, faculty at Mason have raised concerns for many years about gift arrangements that might violate the spirit of academic freedom and integrity.
In that time, we have received repeated assurances, from both the prior administration and current administration, that such concerns were completely unfounded. We now know that is not true.

The faculty are deeply disturbed by the recent revelations of these gift agreements. Lest anyone dismiss this reaction as simply ideological in nature, I want to highlight what our true concerns are. In no instance should a philanthropic donor to a University have any influence over academics – that includes curriculum, faculty hiring, faculty firing, and faculty or student research and scholarship. The ideology driving the influence is not what matters – academic independence, academic freedom, and academic integrity are what matter.

The recently released gift agreements clearly gave donors explicit say in faculty hiring, through membership on selection committees. They further gave donors explicit say in faculty firing, through membership on advisory boards that had the power to recommend removal of faculty members from professorships based on their review of those faculty members’ activities. Finally, some of these agreements appeared to specify individuals who were to be hired into tenured faculty positions without any competitive search, indicating that donors and the University already knew and had agreed upon pre-selected individuals.

These types of agreements are wholly unacceptable. They violate practices described in our Faculty Handbook, and they violate the basic principles of academic integrity and academic freedom.

The presence of these types of agreements also represents a violation of the public trust, given George Mason’s status as a public university. These agreements subsidize practices that are inconsistent with the academic mission that is at the heart of this University and public education at large. Moreover, the presence of these agreements exacerbates the reputation of George Mason as a university that is “for sale” to the highest bidder. We may disagree with that characterization and find it unfair, but it is clear and present in the public – and it is now further entrenched.

In addition, the faculty are concerned with other elements of these and more recent gift agreements that appear to commit university resources to supplement philanthropic dollars. These issues are present not only in the expired gift agreements that were recently released, but in other current gifts, such as the recent $5M gift to the Economics Department. There are serious questions about how temporary philanthropic support of permanent positions leads to long-term commitments of University funds that might drive the future path of the University in alignment with donor interests, rather than with the interests and strategic mission of the University.

Finally, the faculty are disappointed and frustrated by past treatment by the Administration and the Board in matters related to philanthropy. Most egregiously, prior members of the administration who insisted on multiple occasions that these types of arrangements were not in practice here at Mason were some of the actual signatories of the agreements that were recently released. That violation of trust runs deep, and even if it was not a violation by current administrators, it will take significant time and effort to repair. More immediately, the concerns raised by faculty in recent years have been met with a lack of true consideration and repeated cavalier statements about philanthropy by members of the Administration and the Board. Why was there no thorough review of procedures and agreements before now? Why were concerns raised by faculty — concerns that have now been validated — met with indignance and platitudes, instead of meaningful investigation or action? The lack of prior response and action have yielded further ruptures in the faculty’s trust of the leaders of this institution.

I want to assure you that, although the level of concern clearly varies among faculty members, these are not extreme views held by a small minority of faculty. In my role as Faculty Senate Chair over the past 2 years, I have had the opportunity to develop a fairly broad view of issues that arise here at Mason, and I pride myself on trying to take an even-handed view of matters that arise. Even with that deep context, I, too, am disappointed and frustrated by these issues.

Having summarized the faculty concerns, I do want to acknowledge that we are now at a crucial turning point. In the past week, President Cabrera and his staff have reached out to me and the Faculty Senate multiple times to begin thinking through plans to address these issues. The President has demonstrated an openness to ideas that is refreshing, and this type of openness has the potential to lay the groundwork for a true partnership and collaboration of faculty with administration. There is much work to be done, and this will not be an easy road. Rebuilding trust will take years, not days — but it starts now. How we respond to these events will dictate the future of our University.

The Faculty Senate — and the faculty at large — stand ready to work with the Board and the Administration to begin addressing these problems, and to put in place safeguards against them. We can work together to create systems and processes that protect us against these types of violations now and in the future. We have the opportunity to forge a new, collaborative partnership of true shared governance between the administration and faculty in the decisions and actions of this University. Such collaboration in governance can help our University not only recover from these recent events, but emerge a stronger institution than we were before. I implore you all to seize this opportunity with us.

I am honored to represent the incredible faculty from all of our units here at the Mason. I am ready, willing, and eager to engage in this work not just over the coming year in my role as Faculty Senate Chair, but also afterward as one of the many Mason faculty members who devote themselves to making this institution the best educational and research institution it can be.

Thank you for your time and attention.

(Attachment 4: Faculty Senate Chair Keith Renshaw’s Comments to the Board of Visitors)

President Cabrera thanked Dr. Renshaw. President Cabrera provided context by explaining the University raises millions of dollars a year from thousands of donors which is an important and growing part of the University. He noted the percentage of philanthropy dollars in the budget is half of what is received from the state. President Cabrera reported that a small number of gifts come with a few restrictions, but they are in the minority. He noted that most of the gifts are earmarked for specific purposes, i.e., to support a professorship, scholarship, program, or building. He explained that the University tries to get endowed gifts, but most donors are less interested in endowments and more interested in giving temporary restricted gifts, gifts to be deployed within a certain number of years. President Cabrera noted there are some disagreements about the role of temporary agreements, but, in principle, in the conversation with the faculty there is more agreement than disagreement. He noted the fundamental agreement that is shared is that under no circumstances gifts from any donor should compromise the University’s independence and academic freedom. He explained that, in practice, if a donor gives money for a professorship, that donor cannot be involved in the hiring or firing processes of the University; if a donor gives money for a scholarship, that donor cannot decide, determine or influence what student will receive the scholarship; the donor may establish the discipline for the professorship or describe the type of student that should receive the scholarship, but cannot drive the decisions. President Cabrera stated that he has made it a priority since arriving at Mason to make sure that every gift he has been involved with, usually the largest gifts that Mason accepts, is very explicit about stating a commitment to respecting Mason’s academic independence. He noted the largest gifts that have been accepted have been made public and some of those have raised questions by the faculty; he signed those gift agreements because he was in agreement with them. President Cabrera explained the ones that have been found do not reach that bar and the credibility of the process has been questioned. He noted that while the gifts were signed before his arrival and that of the Provost, Dean, and current staff in Development, the Administration must own this and take action due to the credibility of the process being called into question. President Cabrera reported that two days prior to the Board meeting, he communicated to the University community that there would be a thorough search of every current gift agreement in support of a faculty position to be certain that each of those agreements is consistent with the University’s commitment to the principles of academic independence and freedom. He reported that during his meeting with the Faculty Senators they discussed the best way to perform the review in order to be effective and credible, noting the following faculty suggestions: (1) faculty members be involved in the review; (2) external experts be involved in the review; and (3) all gift agreements be made public, with whatever necessary redactions are needed. He reported he told the faculty he agreed with the idea of involving faculty in the review and supported the idea of bringing expertise that can ensure a thorough review. With regard to making the gift agreements public, he noted he shared the directionality of that idea, but discussed with the faculty there might be limits to how much can be released due to legal limits, agreements of confidentiality, etc. He reiterated he agreed with the directionality and that, as much as possible, he would prefer that more gift agreements be made public. President Cabrera hoped the Board would support that sense of direction. He noted he would have another meeting with the Faculty Senate the following day to address a number of questions they have on this subject, have the review, and report back to the Board and the broader community with the results.

Rector Davis advised that he had asked Visitor Witeck to draft a resolution for the Board’s consideration. He noted his concurrence with having independent, external experts involved in the review process.

Visitor Witeck provided comments on the importance of the Board’s decisions and votes, particularly noting the approval of the budget and the subject resolution that will provide solutions while supporting the faculty, students and leadership of the University.

Visitor Witeck read the following Resolution for the Board’s consideration and comment:

WHEREAS, President Cabrera has ordered a review of all active donor agreements supporting faculty positions as well as current gift acceptance policies and practices;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE BOARD OF VISITORS:

3. The Board of Visitors endorses the review initiated by President Cabrera of all active donor agreements supporting faculty positions and gift acceptance policies and practices of the University.

4. The Board of Visitors directs the President to include two Visitors, to be appointed by the Rector, in the review process.

5. The Board of Visitors directs the President to include no fewer than two faculty members in the review process.

It was MOVED by Visitor Witeck and SECONDED by Rector Davis to approve the Resolution. Rector Davis opened the floor for discussion. Discussion and comments from the Board members ensued with responses from President Cabrera and Dr. Renshaw. Mr. Quillen, Student Representative, noted the Resolution referred to one student government president (Item 6) and asked the Board if they would consider having two student representatives because there are two representatives from the other constituencies listed in the Resolution. Rector Davis provided his comments on that suggestion. President Cabrera and Dr. Renshaw concurred with including two student representatives in the review process. Visitor Blackman MOVED that the undergraduate and graduate student body presidents or their designees be included in the Resolution. The motion was SECONDED by Visitor Witeck. Rector Davis clarified that the elected student representatives would select their designees or attend themselves. Rector Davis called for a vote on the amendment to the original motion.

MOTION TO APPROVE THE AMENDMENT CARRIED UNANIMOUSLY BY VOICE VOTE

Additional discussion ensued to confirm the two student representatives in the review process would be the undergraduate and graduate student body presidents or their designees. The Board concurred and noted the Resolution that was presented would need to be revised. Visitor Blackman MOVED that the Resolution wording in Item 6 be changed to undergraduate and graduate student body presidents or their designees. The motion was SECONDED by Visitor Hazel. Rector Davis provided additional comments regarding the review, noting that whatever the review findings are, donors would not influence hiring or firing as conditions of the gifts. President Cabrera concurred, noting agreement by the Board, the administration, and the faculty. Visitor Witeck responded to questions about the approval of the resolution, noting the Resolution provides clear transparency of the engagement of all the stakeholders and an external, independent third-party. Visitor Cumbie called for the question. Rector Davis called for a vote on calling the question.

VOTE TO CALL THE QUESTION CARRIED UNANIMOUSLY BY VOICE VOTE

Rector Davis stated the question was on the Resolution and called for a vote on the Resolution.

VI. Committee Reports
A. Finance and Land Use Committee

Rector Davis called on Chairman Jon Peterson to provide a report from the Finance and Land Use Committee. Chairman Peterson recognized and congratulated Linda Harber, Vice President of Human Resources and Payroll, on her retirement after 40 years of service. Ms. Harber was recognized with applause.

Chairman Peterson announced that Mason had an increased bond rating to an A+. The news was recognized with applause. He thanked the staff for their efforts in the process, noting it was a milestone for Mason. He reported the committee received a report from Jennifer “J.J.” Davis, Senior Vice President for Administration and Finance, on the 2019 Financial Plan. Chairman Peterson noted the difficulty in developing this plan without an approved State budget. He reported the committee approved the 2019 budget and a 4.5% tuition increase. Chairman Peterson noted this represented a $908 increase and was less than many other colleges in Virginia. It was MOVED by Chairman Peterson and SECONDED by Visitor Hazel to approve the budget and the tuition and fee increase as presented. Rector Davis opened the floor for discussion. There was none.

MOTION CARRIED UNANIMOUSLY BY VOICE VOTE

Chairman Peterson reported the committee reviewed and approved three capital budget Action Items as follows:

- Hylton HVAC Renovation
- Merten Hall Capital Lease and Ground Lease (Refinancing)
- Six-Year Capital Plan

It was MOVED by Chairman Peterson and SECONDED by Visitor Cumbie to approve the three Action Items in block. Rector Davis opened the floor for discussion. There was none.

MOTION CARRIED UNANIMOUSLY BY VOICE VOTE

Chairman Peterson reported the committee received a report on the West Campus from Marc Fournier, Assistant Vice President of Business Services. Chairman Peterson explained that piece of land does not have the same infrastructure as the main campus and that, in order to plan usage, all parts of the area were studied. He reported there were no issues presented in the study and there is great potential in the use of that land. Chairman Peterson advised that a master plan would be developed and there would be a strategic planning meeting in July, noting more information would be available at the next Board meeting.

Rector Davis advised the Board he had appointed Visitors Witeck and Alcalde to the donor review committee.

B. Audit Committee
Rector Davis called on Chairman David Petersen to provide a report from the Audit Committee. Chairman Petersen reported the committee received an update on the status of the University’s information security programs and various initiatives that were being undertaken, led by Marilyn Smith, Vice President and CIO, and David Landry, Executive Director and Chief Information Security Officer. Chairman Petersen reported that management continues to strengthen the security of Mason’s information technology environment in light of ever-changing and evolving threats. He noted that Mason receives an average of 97 million threat messages each month. He reported the committee received updates on two security issues communicated by the Auditor of Public Accounts. He noted the committee stressed to Ms. Smith and Mr. Landry the importance of continuing to strengthen the IT security across all of Mason’s systems and servers, the centralized and decentralized servers. Chairman Petersen reported the committee asked Mr. Dittmeier and Ms. Smith to prepare regular progress reports on the various current and future IT initiatives. He reported the committee reviewed the Audit Status reports.

C. Academic Programs, Diversity, and University Community Committee
Rector Davis called on Chairman Alcalde to provide a report from the Academic Programs, Diversity, and University Community Committee. Chairman Alcalde reported the committee received updates from the Provost and his team on several key initiatives, heard remarks from the outgoing student representatives and voted approval of three Action Items. She reported David Burge, Vice President of Enrollment Management, provided a strategic enrollment update, including Smart Growth and Student Experience Redesign. Chairman Alcalde noted the report included: an update on enrollment planning to support Strategic Goal #4 of 100,000 career-ready graduates, increasing Virginia and out-of-state enrollments by FY2014 to 42,885 students; services to support the growth of a more diverse student body to include all students, not just the campus-based traditional residential students; and using technology to connect students to essential offerings and support from the beginning of the student journey. Chairman Alcalde reported that Michelle Marks, Vice President for Academic Innovation and New Ventures, provided an update on the ADVANCE Partnership that included the following for the ADVANCE students: coaching, defined pathway to a bachelor’s degree, cost savings, streamlined admissions, financial aid, early access to Mason, employment focus through internships and workplace competencies, and the opportunity to engage in student life at both institutions. She noted that while the credit hour rate for ADVANCE students is the same, the average student will obtain a bachelor’s degree at a lower overall cost by minimizing the number of credits taken that do not apply directly to a degree. Chairman Alcalde reported there are currently 21 ADVANCE curricular pathways that will increase to 50 next year. Chairman Alcalde reported the committee received a presentation from Rose Pascarell, Vice President for University Life, on student career outcomes, noting the following: the Class of 2017 overall career outcomes rate climbed to 81% with 84% of employed graduates in positions related to their career goals, 90% of the graduates are employed locally, and those employed full-time have a median first year salary plus bonus of $59,000; 74% of graduating students participated in experiential learning related to their goals. Chairman Alcalde reported the committee heard remarks from David Kanos and Andrew Quillen as they complete their terms as Student Representatives to the Board of Visitors.

Chairman Alcalde reported the committee reviewed and approved the Action Items presented in the Board materials for submission to the Board.

It was MOVED by Visitor Witeck and SECONDED by Visitor Prowitt to approve all Action Items in block as presented in the Board materials. Those Action Items were:

- Faculty Handbook Revisions
- Faculty Actions of:
  - Promotion and/or Tenure
  - Conferral of Emeritus/Emerita Status
  - Election of New Tenure Hire
Rector Davis opened the floor for discussion. There was none.

MOTION CARRIED UNANIMOUSLY BY VOICE VOTE

D. Development Committee

Rector Davis called on Chairman Hazel to provide a report from the Development Committee. Chairman Hazel noted he had the opportunity to attend the P3.EDU conference, organized by Michelle Marks, at the Arlington campus in April. He explained it was a discussion with schools from across the U.S. about public-private initiatives in higher education, noting there were 115 colleges and universities from 36 states on Mason’s campus for this event. Chairman Hazel reported the committee had a discussion with the faculty committee representatives, Rector Davis and President Cabrera, and noted his appreciation of that discussion and input. He reported the committee received a report from William Ayre, Director of Giving, and Kelsey Fernandez, Constituent Engagement Manager, on the second annual Giving Day, noting the all the goals were exceeded.

(Attachment 7: Mason Giving Day 2018 – Summary/Overview)

Chairman Hazel reported the committee received an update on the Faster Farther Campaign, noting that all goals are being met. He said the committee is giving some thought on how to celebrate success when the Campaign concludes in December and transition to continuing to raise money and donor enthusiasm. He advised that the final numbers would be published in the first quarter of 2019, but the current numbers are $583.2 million raised against a goal of $500 million. Chairman Hazel reported the committee received a report from Janet Bingham, Vice President of University Advancement & Alumni Relations, on other aspects of the fundraising including $3.7 million for the annual fund component from faculty and staff, up from $1 million last year. He thanked the faculty and staff for their support of Mason. He reported the Annual Fundraising Drive is currently at $61 million, noting it was better than the goal and is the second best fiscal year on record. Chairman Hazel recognized the return of David Long, Associate Vice President in the Office of University Advancement and Alumni Relations. Mr. Long was recognized with applause.

Rector Davis recognized Visitor Hazel with thanks and appreciation for his leadership of the campaign. Visitor Hazel was recognized with applause. Vice Rector Peterson noted the increase of faculty and staff giving and commented it was a strong testament to how the faculty and staff feel about the Mason community. Rector Davis thanked the faculty and staff for their support.

Chairman Hazel provided an update on the Alumni Association 50th Anniversary Celebration on May 12, noting it is a sold-out event with 500+ guests. He thanked Chris Clark-Talley, Associate Vice President in the Office of Alumni Relations, and the Alumni Office for their work on making this a successful event.

E. Research Committee

Rector Davis called on Vice Chairman Blackman to provide a report from the Research Committee. Vice Chairman Blackman reported the committee was advised that performance against sponsored research metrics was looking strong for FY2018 with improvements in all areas, as President Cabrera noted in his report. He reported the committee received information about new multidisciplinary research opportunities from Peggy Agouris, Dean of the College of Science, and Ken Ball, Dean of the Volgenau School of Engineering. Vice Chairman Blackman reported the committee received a report from Germaine Louis, Dean of the College of Health and Human Services, that included information about a recent symposium held at Mason on multidisciplinary research and engagement activities necessary to eradicate the opioid epidemic and described Mason’s plans to formulate partnership-based approaches to compete for research funding in this area.

VII. Closed Session

It was MOVED by Vice Rector Peterson and SECONDED by Visitor Alcalde that the Board go into a Closed Session under the provisions of Section 2.2-3711.A.2 to discuss a Student Matter, Section 2.2-3711.A.4 for the Protection of Privacy in Personal Matter pertaining to a student, Section 2.2-3711.A.29 to discuss a Public Contract, Section 2.2-3711.A.9 to discuss Gifts, Bequests and Fundraising Activities, Section 2.2-3711.A.7 for consultation with Legal Counsel pertaining to actual or probable litigation, Section 2.2-3711.A.8 for consultation with Legal Counsel regarding specific legal matters requiring the provision of legal advice, Section 2.2-3711.A.1 to discuss a Personnel Matter, and Section 2.2-3711.A.10 to discuss Honorary Degrees and Special Awards.

MOTION CARRIED UNANIMOUSLY BY VOICE VOTE

It was MOVED by Vice Rector Peterson and SECONDED by Visitor Petersen that the Board go back into public session and further moved that by ROLL CALL VOTE affirm that only public business matters lawfully exempted from the open meeting requirements under the Freedom of Information Act were heard, discussed or considered in the Closed Meeting, and that only such business matters that were identified in the motion to go into a Closed Meeting were heard, discussed or considered in the Closed Meeting.

Roll call was taken with all present members responding in the affirmative.

President Cabrera reminded the Board to take their copies of the updated Strategic Plan. He also reminded the Board of the 4:00 p.m. ribbon-cutting ceremony for the Peterson Family Health Sciences Hall and recognized Vice Rector Peterson and his family for this gift to the University.

As a result of the Closed Session, it was MOVED by Vice Rector Peterson that pending the acceptance of the speaker invitation by the candidates reviewed in the Closed Session, the Board approve Honorary Degrees for those persons to be awarded at a future Graduation or Commencement. The motion was SECONDED by Visitor Dwoskin. Rector Davis opened the floor for discussion. There was none.

The John C. “Jack” Wood Award for Town-Gown Relations

May 3, 2018

The Jack Wood Award for Town-Gown Relations is a university and community-wide annual award program to recognize both Mason and community individuals and groups, as well as government, businesses, and not-for-profits who demonstrate leadership in fostering mutually beneficial relationships between the university and the community during the past year.

The award is named for John C. “Jack” Wood, Mayor of the Town of Fairfax from 1953-1964. Mayor Wood was the driving force for arranging a campus to be located on land adjacent to the town and deeding it to the Commonwealth of Virginia for the university, thus beginning a Town-Gown relationship.

Government Category (Office/Agency, Elected Official/Staff)
Eric Forbes, Solid Waste Management Division, Department of Public Works and Environmental Services, is the I-95 Complex Manager and a graduate of George Mason University. His idea and leadership to transform four acres of the I-95 Landfill Complex into green meadows with grasses, wildflowers, and bees, led to a mutually beneficial relationship between Mason’s Honey Bee Initiative, Fairfax County, and Covanta to rehabilitate the Covanta I-95 Landfill. In April 2017, the hives, each with 15,000 bees, were established to transform a turfed-over, closed landfill into an educational site open to students and school groups. Due to the project’s success, they are doubling the number of hives at the landfill and plan to expand the scope of the project to include research at the landfill around pollutants and contaminants found in pollen.

Business/Nonprofit Category
Zepponic Farms is an urban farming company that grows produce in a compact hydroponic shipping-container farm in Woodbridge, VA. Zepponic Farms began a program with Mason LIFE, a post-secondary program for young adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities, where adults from the Mason LIFE program visit twice a week to help run the farm. The farm’s output is then purchased by Sodexo and used in Mason’s dining facilities as part of the thrust for healthy student meals sourced locally.

Community Member Category
Jim Green has served George Mason University for over 25 years and is currently the Chair of the University Life Advisory Board. During his tenure as Chair membership has grown by 50%, adding several corporate and community leaders to the Board. He is always connecting board and community members with Mason programs to match their interests. Mr. Green also co-chairs Mason’s Diversity Scholarship Golf Classic, resulting in $600,000 for Mason’s Early Identification Program (EIP) and Student Transition and Empowerment Program (STEP). In addition, during the recent session, Mr. Green advocated with members of the General Assembly to support a budget line item to assist Mason's EIP and STEP programs.

Partnership Category (an initiative created between a Mason entity and an external organization(s) to benefit both entities)

Media Literacy and Civil Dialogue Skills Workshops is a partnership between Mason's School of Conflict Analysis and Resolution (S-CAR) and Fairfax County Public Libraries. The two entities teamed up to develop a set of five public workshops that help community members develop media literacy skills, as well as learn and practice how to engage in civil conversations around difficult topics. The workshop series features a revolving set of skills for each literacy topic – web searches, evaluations sources, fact checking, social media feeds, and international news, followed by a dialogue skill – effective listening, collaborative communication, effective speaking, dealing with emotions, and cross-cultural communication. The monthly sessions currently rotate through the Fairfax County regional libraries but will be expanded this year to the community branches of the libraries as well. The partnership with the libraries has provided S-CAR access to work more directly with the local community to build conflict resolution and dialogue skills while providing the libraries with an innovative addition to library programming.

Faculty/Staff Category

Dr. Niyati Dhokai created and expanded the Hylton Performing Arts' Veterans and the Arts Initiative. This program serves as an arts and community hub for Veterans, Service Members, their families, and military caregivers, to provide community engagement opportunities with local arts organizations while supporting Veterans as they transition to civilian communities. The Initiative also has a research component on how the arts support Veterans and their families. The program has brought the community together at the Hylton Performing Arts Center to engage with the arts through performances, workshops, lessons, exhibitions, and special events.

Legacy Category (The Legacy award recognizes leadership achievement in town-gown relations over a period of time longer than five years)

Dr. Toni-Michelle C. Travis has been a Mason faculty member for three decades. During this time she has been one of the more externally engaged faculty serving in community organizations, speaking to local community groups via direct contacts as well as through the Mason Speakers program, representing Mason in the media, serving as a member of the Metropolitan Relations Advisory Board, serving as a member of the External Academic Relations Committee of the Faculty Senate, hosting and producing the Capitol Region Roundtable television public affairs program, serving as a member of the Cosmos Club, a private social club for men and women distinguished in science, literature, the arts, or public service, and many other activities. Her external outreach on behalf of Mason is extensive and she is truly deserving of this recognition for her many years of dedicated service and leadership in town-gown relations.

Congratulations to all award recipients!
President’s Report
May 3, 2018

[Goals and activity updates since the March 1, 2018 BOV meeting.]

Student and Faculty Success

Mason faculty and students continued to make us proud. Among the highlights:

- Famed choreographer Lar Lubovitch invited 16 Mason dance majors to close the 50th anniversary season of the Lar Lubovitch Dance Company with a performance of his “Brahms Symphony” at the Joyce Theater in New York City. WETA ran a story featuring professor Susan Shields and this unprecedented achievement of the School of Dance that she leads.

- Under the leadership of new Senior Advisor for Strategic Initiatives Dr. Bill Hazel, we hosted a conference with Virginia Gov. Ralph Northam, Congressional Leaders and other experts in Northern Virginia to develop strategies to combat the opioid crisis, bringing the university’s multifaceted research to bear on the national epidemic. The symposium in Dewberry Hall included many regional partners who are searching for a more effective and collective strategy for a scourge that is adversely affecting the entire nation.

- Former Virginia Gov. Terry McAuliffe joined the faculty of the Schar School.

- Gen. Michael Hayden, former head of the NSA and the CIA and a distinguished visiting professor at the Schar School of Policy and Government, hosted a unique event in downtown D.C. to discuss espionage in popular culture. More than 600 people crowded into the ballroom at the National Press Club in Washington, D.C., to hear Showtime network’s hit show “Homeland” stars Claire Danes and Mandy Patinkin, as well as director Lesli Linka Glatter and co-creator and executive producer Howard Gordon, discuss the characters and the context of the show in the larger scheme of pop entertainment and contemporary politics.

- Professor Thomas Lovejoy wrote an op-ed for the New York Times about how “intact forests,” a quarter of the planet’s total forest area, have declined by 7 percent since 2000 and how preserving what’s left is critical for human survival.

- The Roy Rosenzweig Center for History and New Media has created a research management app called “Tropy” that the American Historical Association says will “help researchers organize and describe the photos they take in archives in intuitive and useful ways.”

- Mary Ellen O’Toole, a former FBI profiler and director of Mason’s Forensic Science program, has recreated the details of real crime scenes in Mason’s eight-room Crime Scene House on Kelley Drive. The facility gives students real-world experience processing a crime scene.

- Statistics professor David I. Holmes, who uses stats to investigate the authors of famous literary historical works, discovered that Lafayette contributed to Thomas Paine’s “Rights of Man.”

- The Center for Climate Change Communication issued a 97-page report, based on research from the first March for Science, nine days before the second march to document the participants’ motivations, their perceptions of science and scientists, and what they hoped the march would achieve.
Bioengineering PhD student Steven Roberts is working to develop a means by which the body’s own immune cells, called T-Lymphocytes, would fight cancer in the same way they reject foreign organs when transplanted.

With the assistance of three professors and an Inova gynecological surgeon, bioengineering major Connor Stapp has created a biomechanical model of a pelvic floor, the first step to creating patient-specific models that can identify women who might injure their pelvic floors during vaginal deliveries.

By analyzing the atmospheric precipitation process collision-coalescence, engineering PhD student Leonardo Porcacchia has developed a radar classification scheme to predict severe weather events on a global scale.

Through a relationship with Oman that spans a generation, Mason’s School of Nursing has produced graduates who lead four of the nine nursing institutes in that country. First-year PhD student Abdullah Al Mahrouqi is expected to become the fifth Mason graduate to lead an Omani nursing school.

As part of Mason’s inaugural Olympic Study Abroad Program, nine Mason students, including seven undergraduates, worked as volunteers at the Paralympic Winter Games in South Korea. The six-week program included three weeks of classes at Mason Korea.

Education professor Kristien Zenkov developed a program called “Through Students’ Eyes” to train Mason’s pre-service teachers to help lead school discussions that reach at-risk youth.

A team of graduating engineering seniors won the Traditional Business category—and $10,000—at the annual Deans’ Business Competition at the MIX. The winning proposal pitched a service that would inspect ski lifts via drone and aerial videography. The team plans to use the prize money to develop software.

Women’s basketball player Natalie Butler was chosen in the third round of the WNBA Draft by the Dallas Wings. Butler led the Mason women to their first postseason win in program history and set an NCAA Division I single-season record with 563 rebounds. The UConn transfer also was Atlantic 10 Player of the Year.

Senior Brian Negron was named Eastern Intercollegiate Volleyball Association player of the year and Coach Jay Hosack was named EIVA coach of the year. Mason won 13 of 14 matches in the EIVA and won the regular season conference championship.

The university recognized 25 Mason professors for their dedication to teaching with University Teaching Excellence Awards from the Office of the Provost and the Stearns Center for Teaching and Learning. Communication professor Star Aldebaran Muir won the David J. King Teaching Award, given to a professor with at least 20 years at Mason.

Transformative Partnerships

We have intensified our efforts to explore possible partnerships which would expand our ability to serve adult learners through online education. We will update you on our progress in a separate briefing.

Mason and NOVA faculty have worked closely this Spring to build over 20 pathway programs under the new ADVANCE partnership. We have begun hiring student success coaches and are on track for a Fall 2018 start.
We signed agreements with Wiley to launch two new master’s programs in 2019: Industrial/Organizational Psychology and Data Analytics. These are in addition to the five programs (three master’s programs and two certificates) with Wiley that began in January 2018.

• Student Experience
  Work on Mason Impact and the Student Experience Redesign continues. Impact opportunities will be available in Summer 2018. In the meantime, our restructuring of the study abroad office has begun to produce results. Study abroad participation increased by 19% year over year this Spring. A major contributor to this increase was the roll-out of the Global Gateway program, which attracted 129 applicants.

• Research
  Research activity continues to grow steadily this year. Research expenditures through the end of March were up 12.19% over last year. Facilities and administrative (F&A) costs recovered were up 6.93%. The number of new awards was up 8.03% while the value of new awards was up 31.13%. We expect this increase in the rate and volume of new awards to translate into a sustained increase in expenditures during the remaining months of this fiscal year. Overall, our research pipeline is growing at the highest rate that we have experienced in recent years.

• Fundraising
  As of April 30, we had raised $61M (compared to $62.6M as of 4/30/17) and, thus, have reached our annual goal of $60M.

  Campaign giving to date is $583M, which is on pace to exceed $600M by December, 2018 (vs. the $500M goal).

  Endowment giving is $3.9M this year compared to $3.7M at the same time last year, but off pace to meet our $5M goal. A transition in our planned giving personnel slowed down our endowment fund-raising earlier this year but we have already seen a resumption of momentum over the past month.

  As of April 30, the total number of alumni donors was 4,824 compared with 4,679 at the same time last year (a 3% increase).

  Our second annual Giving Day (April 5th) built on the success of last year. We raised just under $375,000 from 2,046 donors; an increase of 94% in dollars raised and a 30% increase in donors compared to our inaugural Giving Day in 2017. This year’s Giving Day attracted new donors (244/$47,000), alumni donors (982/$187,000) and faculty/Staff Donors (319/$89,000).

  A number of problematic gift agreements supporting faculty positions in economics were found two weeks ago as part of a FOIA request. The agreements were signed prior to 2011 and, with one exception, have expired. The remaining agreement has been voided. Except for the oldest one, the agreements stated that all decisions would be ultimately compliant with university procedures. Yet the agreements allowed for donor participation in faculty selection and evaluation.

I have issued statements declaring that these old agreements fall short of our standards of academic independence and have ordered a review of all outstanding gift agreements supporting faculty positions as well as our gift acceptance policies and practices. I am currently working with the faculty to gather their input about faculty participation in the review as well as other advice that can help the review be as effective as possible.

  We inaugurated the Potomac Environmental Research and Education Center and are excited to cut the ribbon on the new Peterson Family Health Sciences Hall this afternoon.

  Our focus is now shifting to the next major campus project: a replacement for Robinson Hall and associated major upgrades to the Fairfax campus utility infrastructure. Design work has been completed and we remain on track for a Fall 2018 construction start.

  With advice from several BOV members and with the assistance of internal and external consultants, we continue to pursue an RFP to possibly develop additional student housing on a property adjacent to West Campus.

- Strategic Plan
  The Strategic Plan update was approved in December. This Spring we have built the framework of a comprehensive financial plan that will guide Strategic Plan implementation going forward. The financial plan, entitled “Smart Growth,” has been shared in various stages with the community in a series of town halls and budget discussions this Spring.

Legislative Update – Federal:

Meetings with Virginia Congressional Members: Along with Dr. William Hazel, Mason’s new Senior Advisor for Strategic Initiatives, spent March 22 on Capitol Hill meeting with several Members of the Virginia Congressional delegation. The Members visited included Reps. Gerry Connolly, Barbara Comstock, Donald McEachin, and Senators Tim Kaine and Mark Warner. The purpose of the visits was to brief the Virginia delegation on Mason’s new Opioid Initiative, and explain the need for university capacity building grants, or the creation of university Centers of Excellence to fight the opioid scourge. Secondly, the House legislation to reauthorize the Higher Education Act and associated Mason concerns were also discussed. A third aspect of the meetings was to provide an update on Mason’s Center for Criminal Investigations and Network Analysis, which was awarded by the Department of Homeland Security last year in an open competition.

Letter in Support of Fulbright: A letter of support was written to Virginia Senators Mark Warner and Tim Kaine expressing opposition to the Administration’s proposal to cut the Fulbright Program by 71%. The diplomatic and educational value of Fulbright was highlighted, noting that it has had bipartisan support over the years, along with my specific quotes, including “a Fulbright scholarship funded by the Spanish government enabled me to study in the U.S., and learn about the American society and culture, make many wonderful American friends, eventually becoming an American citizen, contributing to the American economy and serving as an official American ambassador to my native Spain and elsewhere. The letter went on to note, “in my current capacity as President of Virginia’s largest public university, I can attest to the value of Fulbright and other federally-funded international exchange programs to George Mason University students, faculty, and campus community.”

Roundtable on Global Education - Participated in a roundtable discussion, The Economic Imperative of a Global Education, sponsored by the Association of International Educations, and the Business Council for International Understanding (NAFSA). The event was held in the Capitol Visitors Center. The theme of the discussion centered on the value of an international education to employers. Addressed personal experience as an international student in the U.S., and how it opened up numerous career opportunities and the feedback received from business executives that they routinely express the need for skills that are cultivated through an international experience as part of the curriculum. This is why Mason has integrated building global knowledge into its strategic plan. Others participating in the roundtable included representatives from business, including IBM and Archer Daniels Midland, Senate staff, Brookings, and other universities.

Legislative Update - State:

2018-20 Biennial Budget: The General Assembly adjourned on March 10 without a budget. I was fully engaged with our state relations team until the end. The Governor and the General Assembly have agreed to hold a Special Session this year to finalize the budget. The House and Senate met on April 11 to “organize” the Special Session. The House took quick action to adopt a new budget recommendation, which is favorable to Mason, on April 17. At this time, the Senate is scheduled to meet on May 14 to begin the process to adopt the Senate version of the budget, also favorable to Mason, and formally put the budget recommendations into a Conference Committee to work out the final details.

Legislative Outreach: Since the adjournment of the General Assembly, our state relations staff has stayed in regular contact with legislative members to ensure that Mason’s legislative and budget interests are still in the forefront of their minds. With the Special Session on April 11 and the Reconvened “Veto” Session on April 18 and the associated committee meetings, there has been more accessibility to meet with legislators in Richmond than normal this time of year.

Council of Presidents: As the current chair of the Council of Presidents, I have hosted two meetings since the last Board of Visitors meeting. The meetings during my term as chair have been substantive and timely with respect to higher education regulatory, legislative and budget activities. Most recently, we hosted the Secretary of Finance to discuss the budget, the Secretary of Workforce Development to discuss higher education’s role with the Administration’s goals and the President and CEO of the Virginia Economic Development Partnership to review university involvement with economic development opportunities.

Additional Outreach: On April 17 (prior to the legislative Veto Session on April 18) I sent a letter co-signed by several Northern Virginia CEOs to the budget conferees pledging our support for the CyberX proposal. Mason will continue to monitor this proposal during the final budget negotiations.
Looking Ahead

Faculty Senate Chair Keith Renshaw’s Comments
May 3, 2018 Meeting of the Board of Visitors

Thank you for the time and opportunity to convey the faculty reactions to the recently released gift agreements.

As you likely know, faculty at Mason have raised concerns for many years about gift arrangements that might violate the spirit of academic freedom and integrity. In that time, we have received repeated assurances, from both the prior administration and current administration, that such concerns were completely unfounded. We now know that is not true.

The faculty are deeply disturbed by the recent revelations of these gift agreements. Lest anyone dismiss this reaction as simply ideological in nature, I want to highlight what our true concerns are. In no instance should a philanthropic donor to a University have any influence over academics – that includes curriculum, faculty hiring, faculty firing, and faculty or student research and scholarship. The ideology driving the influence is not what matters – academic independence, academic freedom, and academic integrity are what matter.

The recently released gift agreements clearly gave donors explicit say in faculty hiring, through membership on selection committees. They further gave donors explicit say in faculty firing, through membership on advisory boards that had the power to recommend removal of faculty members from professorships based on their review of those faculty members’ activities. Finally, some of these agreements appeared to specify individuals who were to be hired into tenured faculty positions without any competitive search, indicating that donors and the University already knew and had agreed upon pre-selected individuals.

These types of agreements are wholly unacceptable. They violate practices described in our Faculty Handbook, and they violate the basic principles of academic integrity and academic freedom.

The presence of these types of agreements also represents a violation of the public trust, given George Mason’s status as a public university. These agreements subsidize practices that are inconsistent with the academic mission that is at the heart of this University and public education at large. Moreover, the presence of these agreements exacerbates the reputation of George Mason as a university that is “for sale” to the highest bidder. We may disagree with that characterization and find it unfair, but it is clear and present in the public – and it is now further entrenched.

In addition, the faculty are concerned with other elements of these and more recent gift agreements that appear to commit university resources to supplement philanthropic dollars. These issues are present not only in the expired gift agreements that were recently released, but in other current gifts, such as the recent $5M gift to the Economics Department. There are serious questions about how temporary philanthropic support of permanent positions leads to long-term commitments of University funds that might drive the future path of the University in alignment with donor interests, rather than with the interests and strategic mission of the University.

Finally, the faculty are disappointed and frustrated by past treatment by the Administration and the Board in matters related to philanthropy. Most egregiously, prior members of the administration who insisted on multiple occasions that these types of arrangements were not in practice here at Mason were some of the actual signatories of the agreements that were recently released. That violation of trust runs deep, and even if it was not a violation by current administrators, it will take significant time and effort to repair. More immediately, the concerns raised by faculty in recent years have been met with a lack of true consideration and repeated cavalier statements about philanthropy by members of the Administration and Board. Why was there no thorough review of procedures and agreements before now? Why were the concerns raised by faculty — concerns that have now been validated — met with indignance and platitudes, instead of meaningful investigation or action? The lack of prior response and action have yielded further ruptures in the faculty's trust of the leaders of this institution.

I want to assure you that, although the level of concern clearly varies among faculty members, these are not extreme views held by a small minority of faculty. In my role as Faculty Senate Chair over the past 2 years, I have had the opportunity to develop a fairly broad view of issues that arise here at Mason, and I pride myself on trying to take an even-handed view of matters that arise. Even with that deep context, I, too, am disappointed and frustrated by these issues.

Having summarized the faculty concerns, I do want to acknowledge that we are now at a crucial turning point. In the past week, President Cabrera and his staff have reached out to me and the Faculty Senate multiple times to begin thinking through plans to address these issues. The President has demonstrated an openness to ideas that is refreshing, and this type of openness has the potential to lay the groundwork for a true partnership and collaboration of faculty with administration. There is much work to be done, and this will not be an easy road. Rebuilding trust will take years, not days — but it starts now. How we respond to these events will dictate the future of our University.

The Faculty Senate — and the faculty at large — stand ready to work with the Board and the Administration to begin addressing these problems, and to put in place safeguards against them. We can work together to create systems and processes that protect us against these types of violations now and in the future. We have the opportunity to forge a new, collaborative partnership of true shared governance between the administration and faculty in the decisions and actions of this University. Such collaboration in governance can help our University not only recover from these recent events, but emerge a stronger institution than we were before. I implore you all to seize this opportunity with us.

I am honored to represent the incredible faculty from all of our units here at the Mason. I am ready, willing, and eager to engage in this work not just over the coming year in my role as Faculty Senate Chair, but also afterward as one of the many Mason faculty members who devote themselves to making this institution the best educational and research institution it can be.

Thank you for your time and attention.

COIA QUICK GUIDE

The State and Local Government Conflict of Interests Act ("Act"), Virginia Code §2.2-3100, et seq., is applicable to you as a Board member ("Officer"). The Act governs 1) Contracts 2) Transactions and 3) General Prohibitions. You are also required to file an annual Statement of Economic Interests.

Contracts and Transactions

Prohibited conduct for Contracts and Transactions generally requires that you have a personal interest in the contract or transaction (transaction is normally a vote you cast on the Board or in a committee). YOU means you personally, your spouse, and dependents. PERSONAL INTEREST means salary or other compensation (or any legal consideration) exceeding $5,000 per year, or ownership in a business exceeding 3% of its total equity.

You cannot have any contract with the University in which you have a personal interest unless a statutory exception applies. You cannot participate in any transaction with the University in which you have a personal interest without statutory public disclosures. There are exceptions, but exceptions must be exercised prior to entering into an otherwise prohibited contract or transaction.

General Prohibitions

These prohibitions do not require a personal interest. You are prohibited from accepting or soliciting money or anything of value, regardless of the amount, for:

1) Performing your official duties (remuneration for actual expenses excepted).
2) Obtaining employment, appointment or promotion for any person with the University.
3) Obtaining a contract for any person or business.
4) Using confidential information.
5) Accepting any money, loan, gift favor, service or business or professional opportunity reasonably tending to influence you in the performance of your duties.
6) Accepting gifts from any person whose interests may be substantially affected by the Board, or from accepting gifts on such a frequent basis as to create an appearance of private gain.

Statement of Economic Interests

You will be required to annually file (electronically) a Statement of Economic Interests with the Virginia Conflict of Interest and Ethics Advisory Council. This is a public document. While the form is not a model of clarity, the general guidance is that when in doubt, disclose.

You are additionally required to take an orientation course on the act within two months of appointment and biannually thereafter. The course is online at http://ethics.dls.virginia.gov by scrolling down to "State Employee and Officer Training Module."

WARNING

The Act has both civil and criminal sanctions. As Senior Assistant Attorneys General, your University lawyers must report suspected violations. Concerns regarding your conduct and the Act should first be directed to the Chief of Staff.
FOIA QUICK GUIDE

The Virginia Freedom of Information Act, Code of Virginia §2.2-3700, et seq., governs 1) public access to records and 2) the conduct of meetings.

Records

All records prepared or possessed by you in the transaction of University business, including both paper and electronic forms, are subject to public disclosure. Your emails to fellow Board members and others in the transaction of University business, even if on a personal email account or by a privately owned device, are subject to disclosure. (§42.1-77). You may want to consider a dedicated email account for University business.

All records are presumed to be public. You may exclude all or part of some records from disclosure, if they fall into a statutory exclusion, but the burden is on the University to identify the specific sections of the Code of Virginia that permit withholding.

The wisest approach is to assume that all your writings and records related to University business will appear in the media. You should ascertain that any matter you do not want published or broadcast falls under an exclusion before being committed to writing or otherwise recorded.

Meetings

Any meeting of three or more Board members, in Board committee or even as part of another University committee, requires at least three working days public notice be posted setting forth the specific date, time and location. There are provisions for emergencies and limited attendance by electronic communications, but specific statutory requirements must also be observed and they are generally no less burdensome than regular meetings.

All meetings, to include committee meetings, are open to the public. You may go into closed meeting for specific statutory purposes. Before going into closed meeting, you will be required to identify the subject matter and purpose, and the specific section of the Code of Virginia, that permit the closed meeting. At the conclusion of closed meeting you will be required to certify, by roll call vote, that you discussed only those matters properly the subject of the closed meeting.

The statute recognizes that three or more Board members may gather without notice at purely social or public functions, but you may not discuss or transact any University business at such functions.

Simultaneous email transmissions by three or more Board members are not yet considered meetings in a ruling of the Supreme Court (Hill v. Fairfax County School Board, 284 Va. 306, 2012) but the Court suggested a different result under other circumstances. It is accordingly strongly recommended that you limit contemporaneous email to only one other Board member at a time, and that emails to and from more than one member be routed through the Secretary Pro Tem or the Chief of Staff.

Sanctions

You can be held individually liable for willing and knowing violations with a civil penalty of up to $2,000 for a first violation and up to $5,000 for a second or subsequent violation.

Subject: Emeritus/Emerita Designation for Kathleen Gaffney

Date: June 11, 2018

This memo affirms my support for Professor Kathleen Gaffney's candidacy for Faculty Emeritus as nominated by several colleagues and a Mason alumna. In 1991, Professor Gaffney joined the College's faculty as an Associate Professor in the School of Nursing and was promoted to Professor in 2002. She has held numerous roles throughout the College and University. Notable accomplishments and service include her role as Director of the School of Nursing's doctoral program and later in building the nurse practitioner programs. The growing stature of our School of Nursing is, in part, a reflection of excellent faculty such as Professor Gaffney. Also of note is her stature as an extramurally funded researcher with grant awards from the National Institutes of Health. In addition, Professor Gaffney is a pediatric nurse practitioner, and she uses her clinical expertise to deliver care in various clinics. Her recent appointment as HRSA's Commissioner for the Advisory Commission on Childhood Vaccines speaks to her professional stature. In light of Professor Gaffney's retirement effective June 1, 2018 and longstanding commitment to the School, College and University, I am supportive of her Faculty Emeritus appointment effective June 2, 2018.

Subject: Emeritus/Emerita Designation for Margaret Miklancie

Date: June 11, 2018

This memo affirms my support for Dr. Margaret Miklancie's candidacy for Faculty Emeritus as nominated by three colleagues. Having first joined the College's faculty in the School of Nursing as a member of the Adjunct Faculty in 1992, Dr. Miklancie later became an Assistant Professor in 2001 and Associate Professor in 2017. She held important academic roles within the undergraduate nursing program not only in the classroom but also at various clinical sites. While I do not know Dr. Miklancie given my short tenure at Mason, her colleagues regard her as an excellent teacher who helped launch many degree programs. Of note is her service on Faculty Council and the Writing Across the Curriculum community. She is credited with representing the School, College and University in the highest possible manner reflecting her longstanding dedication and service to Mason. In light of Dr. Miklancie's retirement effective June 1, 2018 and longstanding commitment to the School, College and University, I am supportive of her Faculty Emeritus appointment effective June 2, 2018.

After an extensive search, we were fortunate to hire Dr. Johanna Mollerstrom. Dr. Mollerstrom received her PhD in economics from Harvard University in 2013 and has produced a strong record of research publications. In 1991, Professor Gaffney joined the College's faculty as an Associate Professor in the School of Nursing and was promoted to Professor in 2002. Notable accomplishments and service include her role as Director of the School of Nursing's doctoral program and later in building the nurse practitioner programs. The growing stature of our School of Nursing is, in part, a reflection of excellent faculty such as Professor Gaffney. Also of note is her stature as an extramurally funded researcher with grant awards from the National Institutes of Health. In addition, Professor Gaffney is a pediatric nurse practitioner, and she uses her clinical expertise to deliver care in various clinics. Her recent appointment as HRSA's Commissioner for the Advisory Commission on Childhood Vaccines speaks to her professional stature. ITEM NUMBER VIII.B: Exclusion of the Board of Visitors from the National Industrial Security Program personal security clearance requirement.

PURPOSE OF ITEM: This Action Item is required to avoid the requirement for members of the Board of Visitors to obtain personal security clearances.

BRIEF NARRATIVE: Under the provision of the National Industrial Security Program the senior management officer and the Facility Security Officer must always be cleared to the level of the Facility Clearance Level (FCL). The University has a Top Secret FCL which allows researchers to work on classified contracts up to and including the Top Secret level. Both the President and the Facility Security Officer possess the required Top Secret clearances. Other officials as determined by the “Cognizant Security Agency” (CSA) must be granted personal security level clearances or be excluded by formal resolution. Our CSA, the Defense Security Service, has determined that the Board of Visitors must be effectively excluded from all classified information disclosed to the organization. This exclusion must be made a matter of record by the University’s executive body. This is a recurring exclusion that must be executed whenever a change to membership of the Board of Visitors occurs. The wording of the exclusion is the wording provided by our CSA and we have been instructed not to vary from it.

STAFF RECOMMENDATION: Staff recommends Board approval
RESOLUTION ON CLASSIFIED INFORMATION ACCESS

WHEREAS, current Department of Defense Regulations contain a provision making it mandatory that the Senior Management Official and Facility Security Officer meet the requirements for eligibility for access to classified information established for a contractor facility clearance; and

WHEREAS, said Department of Defense Regulations permit the exclusion from the requirements for access to classified information of certain members of the Board of Directors and other officers, provided that this action is recorded in the corporate minutes.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT DECLARED that the Senior Management Official and Facility Security Officer at the present time do possess the required eligibility for access to classified information; and

BE IT RESOLVED that in the future, when any individual enters upon any duties as Senior Management Official or Facility Security Officer, such individual shall, if they do not already possess such, immediately make application for the required eligibility for access to classified information; and

BE IT RESOLVED AND DIRECTED that the following members of the Board of Directors and other officers shall not require, shall not have, and can be effectively and formally excluded from access to all CLASSIFIED information disclosed to the University and shall not affect adversely University policies or practices in the performance of classified contracts for the Department of Defense or the Government contracting activities (User Agencies) of the National Industrial Security Program.

ITEM NUMBER VIII.D.: Key Initiatives and FY 2019 Budget – State Impact

PURPOSE OF ITEM: To brief the Board of Visitors on updates to the FY 2019 operating budget, strategies and initiatives.

BRIEF NARRATIVE: The Senior Vice President for Administration and Finance will provide an update on the FY 2019 operating and capital budget. Primarily those updates will be a review of the Commonwealth General Funds.

ITEM NUMBER VII.E.: Commonwealth Six-Year Operational Plan

PURPOSE OF ITEM: The Higher Education Opportunity Act of 2011 requires biennial Board of Visitor approval of a Six-Year Plan, which is submitted to the State Council for Higher Education in Virginia (SCHEV).

BRIEF NARRATIVE: The Senior Vice President for Administration and Finance will provide an update on Mason’s six-year operating plan. The plan outlines key academic program initiatives, financial projections, and capital planning for consideration by the state government as they develop amendments to the biennial budget.

On August 20, 2017, the President, Senior Vice President, and Provost presented the plan to representatives of the Governor’s Office, Secretary of Finance, Secretary of Education, Director of Planning and Budget, Executive Director of the State Council of Higher Education in Virginia, Staff Director of the House Committee on Appropriations, and Staff Director of the Senate Committee on Finance. BRIEF NARRATIVE: Section 4-3.01 prohibits agencies from obligating or expending general fund amounts in excess of appropriations or obligating or expending at a rate that would result in expenditures in excess of non-general fund revenue collections and appropriations, without prior approval by the Governor.

Consistent with this provision, the agency head is directed to acknowledge the receipt of this notification.

The heads of agencies with governing boards must also provide each board member with a copy of this notice - §4-3.01.

STAFF RECOMMENDATION: For Board information only.
§ 4-3.00 DEFICIT AUTHORIZATION AND TREASURY LOANS

§ 4-3.01 DEFICITS

a. GENERAL:

1. Except as provided in this section no state agency shall incur a deficit. No state agency receiving general fund appropriations under the provisions of this act shall obligate or expend moneys in excess of its general fund appropriations, nor shall it obligate or expend moneys in excess of nongeneral fund revenues that are collected and appropriated.

2. The Governor is authorized to approve deficit funding for a state agency under the following conditions:
   a) an unanticipated federal or judicial mandate has been imposed,
   b) insufficient moneys are available in the first year of the biennium for start-up of General Assembly-approved action, or
   c) delay pending action by the General Assembly at its next legislative Session will result in the curtailment of services required by statute or those required by federal mandate or will produce a threat to life, safety, health or property.
   d) Such approval by the Governor shall be in writing under the conditions described in § 4-3.02 a Authorized Deficit Loans of this act and shall be promptly communicated to the Chairmen of the House Appropriations and Senate Finance Committees within five calendar days of deficit approval.

3. Deficits shall not be authorized for capital projects.

4. The Department of Transportation may obligate funds in excess of the current biennium appropriation for projects of a capital nature not covered by § 4-4.00 Capital Projects of this act provided such projects 1) are delineated in the Virginia Transportation Six-Year Improvement Program, as approved by the Commonwealth Transportation Board; and 2) have sufficient cash allocated to each such project to cover projected costs in each year of the Program; and provided that 3) sufficient revenues are projected to meet all cash obligations for such projects as well as all other commitments and appropriations approved by the General Assembly in the biennial budget.

b. UNAUTHORIZED DEFICITS: If any agency contravenes any of the prohibitions stated above, thereby incurring an unauthorized deficit, the Governor is hereby directed to withhold approval of such excess obligation or expenditure. Further, there shall be no reimbursement of said excess, nor shall there be any liability or obligation upon the state to make any appropriation hereafter to meet such unauthorized deficit. Further, those members of the governing board of any such agency who shall have voted therefore, or its head if there be no governing board, making any such excess obligation or expenditure shall be personally liable for the full amount of such unauthorized deficit and, at the discretion of the Governor, shall be deemed guilty of neglect of official duty and be subject to removal therefore. Further, the State Comptroller is hereby directed to make public any such unauthorized deficit, and the Director, Department of Planning and Budget, is hereby directed to set out such unauthorized deficits in the next biennium budget.
